

Active LIVES

Biographies on Stage

Active Lives – Biographies on Stage is a dynamic new literacy programme from Clean Slate Press. Intended for Years 5–8, Active Lives combines the human-interest appeal of biographies with the hands-on action of plays. There are 12 full-colour 32-page books in the series, divided into two sets of six titles. Each Active Lives book contains:

- A two-spread non-fiction report on an important historical event or time
- Two one-spread biographies on the two main characters from the historical event
- A nine-spread play based on the historical event and featuring the characters from the biographies plus supporting characters
- A non-fiction feature spread
- Notes on source material
- A glossary

Active Lives – Biographies on Stage combines topic teaching, biography study, and drama into one book. With Active Lives, students are able to read about two important figures from history and then actively explore the motivations and characters of these individuals. Through drama, the characters are made three-dimensional and the student is given the opportunity to explore point-of-view in an active way.

Each play contains primary source quotes which are highlighted for the reader and greatly add to the dramatic authenticity of the overall text.

The dynamic learning inherent in Active Lives – Biographies on Stage encourages deeper-level thinking and reflection and makes it the ideal programme for cross-curricula studies.
